Lucas' practice is focused on import compliance matters and international trade law. As a member of ArentFox Schiff's Forced Labor Task Force, Mr. Rock has experience helping companies conduct due diligence on their supply chains and preparing submissions to Customs for the release of merchandise detained in connection with forced labor Withhold Release Orders.

Mr. Rock also has experience with the classification of merchandise under the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, country of origin determinations, Free Trade Agreements, bonded warehouses, and valuation issues including first sale. Lucas advises clients on trade policy issues, such as the Section 301 tariffs on imports from China and the EU. He has assisted with compliance with federal and state regulations including the Fish and Wildlife Service's administration of programs relating to protected species and the Office of Foreign Assets Control sanction list.
